Susan champions the message that sound ethical practices must begin within. This means that leaders who give back selflessly to their company and employees will garner influence and respect which will ultimately engender a team of people who want to do their best work for you.

Susan's signature Heart-Centered Leadership speaking style based on her book, Heart-Centered Leadership: Lead Well, Live Well, is refreshingly honest, and leaves the audience with the information they need to make significant change in their approach to work.

"The world of business desperately needs more heart-centered leadership...Operating this way is not only enriching and fulfilling, but, ironically, it's also the most enduring and profitable approach to business." - Kip Tindell, CEO of The Container Store
